Re: El Paso Corporation's Potential Responsibility for Environmental Issues at the Former Wilcox Oil Company, Bristow, Oklahoma

Dear Mr. Foshee:

The Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) is investigating a former oil refinery, which was known as Wilcox Oil Company (CERCLIS # OK0001010917) located in Bristow, Oklahoma. The property is being investigated by DEQ under the authority of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (CERCLA), as amended by the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 (SARA), pursuant to a Cooperative Agreement (#V-96688701) with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). The purpose of these investigations is to collect sufficient information concerning conditions at the site to assess the extent of the threat the site poses to human health and the environment.

The DEQ has determined that the site was owned and operated as a refinery from approximately 1915 to 1963. The Wilcox Oil Company operated a crude oil refinery at the site from the 1920s to early 1960s. Available information indicates that the Wilcox Oil Company merged with Tenneco Oil Company in 1965 and that El Paso Energy Corporation acquired Tenneco Oil Company in 1996.

The former Wilcox refinery site occupies approximately 125 acres and is located in the N/2, NW/4, Section 29, Township 16 North, Range 9 East and in SW/4, SW/4, Section 20, Township 16 North, Range 9 East, Indian Meridian, Creek County, Oklahoma. A large volume of visible waste is present at the site, especially in the process area and crude oil tank farm. Elevated levels of metals and organic compounds have been detected in surface soils and sediments. A church with a playground and six residences are located on the former refinery. Evidence suggests numerous children reside in each residence. Many of the homes have private wells on their property.

~~EPA Region 6 is moving towards preparation of a Hazard Ranking System (HRS) package for the site in order to support proposing the site to the National Priorities List.~~ However, Region 6 has allowed DEQ an opportunity to contact the potentially responsible parties (PRPs) to discuss options available through the state's voluntary clean-up program.

The DEQ would like to discuss the possibility of El Paso Corporation entering our Voluntary Cleanup or Brownfields Program to address environmental contamination at the site. Enclosed is specific information indicating the location and ownership of the refinery and the connection to El Paso Corporation.

Please contact me by December 1, 2011, to schedule a meeting to discuss this matter. You may reach me at (405) 702-5157 or amy.brittain@deq.ok.gov. Further information concerning DEQ's cleanup programs can be found on our website <http://www.deq.state.ok.us/lpdnew/index.htm>.

Following the discovery of oil in the Permian Basin in the 1920s, Houston attorney, Paul Kayser, determined that El Paso, Texas provided a promising market for more cost-effective natural gas. He firmed up supply from several gas wells near Jal, New Mexico, convinced El Paso's industrial facilities to convert to natural gas, and El Paso Natural Gas Company was born.

In the three-quarters of a century since its founding, El Paso has grown from a regional natural gas company to the largest natural gas transmission system in North America.

(iv) act in the name of the Company, if necessary, with respect to any matters relating to the Company for which the Trust has assumed responsibility;

(v) settle any claims or threatened claims made by or against the Trust or the Company; provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to limit the Trustee's authority to settle fewer than all claims pending between any claimant and the Company or the Trust;

(vi) sue and be sued in the name of the Trust (or in the name of the Company) and participate, as a party or otherwise, in any judicial, administrative, arbitration, or other action, suit, or proceeding affecting the Company or the Trust, including, without limitation, any proceeding relating to the validity, construction, or interpretation of the Plan, this Trust Agreement, any insurance policy, or any common law right of action relating to any asset, right, claim, cause of action, chose in action or obligation or asserted liability of the Company or the Trust;

(vii) determine whether any claims or potential claims belonging to the Company should be asserted by or on behalf of the Company and whether any action, suit, or proceeding should be commenced or continued by or on behalf of the Company in connection therewith;

(viii) with respect to any lawsuits formerly filed against the Company, and with respect to any action brought against the Company or the Trust or as to which the Trust is substituted as a party after the Effective Date, act in the same manner that the Company has or could have acted with respect to such lawsuits (including but not limited to deciding whether or not to appeal any judgment, order, or other decree) and be entitled to the same defenses and rights to assert claims, counterclaims, cross-claims, or claims for contribution or indemnification, and to negotiate settlements as the Company had or would have had in resolution of such lawsuits;

(ix) exercise all rights and benefits available to the Trust with respect to any Insurance Policy;

(x) borrow money and issue notes and other evidences of indebtedness of the Trust (which notes or other evidences of indebtedness may exonerate the Trustee from personal liability with respect thereto) as the Trustee deems necessary or appropriate in connection with the administration of the Trust.

(xi) hire such employees and engage such legal, financial, insurance, and accounting professionals, investment managers, alternative dispute resolution panelists, expert witnesses, and such other consultants, advisors, and agents as the Trustee deems necessary or useful in connection with the administration of the Plan and the Trust (including without limitation in connection with any action, suit, or proceeding involving the Company or the Trust), pay such Persons reasonable compensation for their services, and cause the Trust to indemnify such Persons on such terms as the Trustee deems reasonable;

(xii) withhold amounts from distributions pursuant hereto, and pay such amounts over to the appropriate taxing authorities;

(xiii) enter into such other arrangements with third parties as are deemed by the Trustee to be necessary or useful in carrying out the purposes of the Trust;

(xiv) register transfers of the interest in the Trust held by the Primary Beneficiary, all in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.2 hereof; and

(xv) execute and deliver on behalf of the Company or the Trust any and all instruments, agreements, certificates, or other documents and papers as the Trustee shall in its judgment deem necessary or useful in connection with the administration of Plan Claims, the payment or satisfaction of Plan Obligations, and the winding up of the Company's business and affairs.

(c) All determinations made by the Trustee in connection with the exercise of its powers hereunder shall be conclusive unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the Trustee has grossly abused its discretion.

6.3 Administration.

- (a) The fiscal year of the Trust shall end on December 31 of each year.
- (b) Except as otherwise provided herein, the corpus of the Trust shall be held by one or more substantial depository institutions under custodial agreements, pursuant to which a depository institution holds all investments and executes all trades in the name of the Trust and disburses funds as directed in writing by the Trustee.
- (c) The Trustee shall maintain such books and records of the Trust, including such monthly, quarterly, or annual reports as the Trustee shall arrange, as are necessary and appropriate to reflect the financial history and current status of the Trust.
- (d) Following the expiration of the period set forth in Section 278 of the DGCL with respect to the continuing existence as a body corporate of the Company following its dissolution, the Trustee shall have standing to apply to the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware pursuant to Section 279 of the DGCL (or any successor provision) for the appointment of a receiver of and for the Company, and the Trustee may apply to the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware for the appointment of a receiver of and for the Company if the Trustee determines that the appointment of a trustee or receiver is necessary or appropriate.

6.4 Taxes. In the event that any tax is imposed on the Trust, the Trustee shall charge such tax against amounts otherwise distributable to the Primary Beneficiary. The Trustee is authorized to retain from amounts otherwise distributable to the Primary Beneficiary sufficient funds to pay or provide for the payment of, and to actually pay, such tax as is legally owed by the Trust (but such authorization shall not prevent the Trustee from contesting any such tax in the appropriate proceedings, and withholding payment of such tax if permitted by law, pending the outcome of such proceedings).

6.5 Tax Returns. The Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared all Federal, state and local tax returns for the Trust. For Federal income tax purposes, the Trustee shall report all income of the Trust or cause such income to be reported consistent with the Trust's status as a grantor trust pursuant to Section 1.671-4(a) of the Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Code.

ARTICLE VII

THE TRUSTEE

7.1 Number. There shall be one trustee serving as the Trustee (or its successor) at all-times

7.2 Term of Service.

(a) The Trustee shall serve until the earlier of the Termination Date or the appointment of any successor Trustee.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by written notice to the Primary Beneficiary and each Person who was serving as a director of the Company as of the Effective Date. Such notice shall specify a date when such resignation shall take effect, which date shall not be less than ninety (90) days after the date such notice is given, provided, however, that such resignation shall not be effective unless and until a successor is available to assume the duties of Trustee.

7.3 Compensation and Expenses of Trustee. The Trustee shall not be compensated for services as Trustee.

7.4 Successor Trustee. The Trustee shall appoint its successor and such successor Trustee may, in turn, appoint its successor. The appointment of such successor shall be made by specific reference hereto in a written instrument that the Trustee shall execute and deliver to the chosen successor and the Primary Beneficiary. In the event a vacancy occurs for which a successor has not been appointed, then the Primary Beneficiary shall appoint a successor Trustee by specific reference hereto in a written instrument that the Primary Beneficiary shall execute and deliver to the chosen successor. The original Trustee and any successor or substitute Trustee named herein shall serve without bond. Except as otherwise expressly indicated, each successor or substitute Trustee shall have all the powers and immunities herein given to the original Trustee.

7.5 Consultation with and Reliance upon Experts. The Trustee may, but shall not be required to, consult with counsel, accountants, investment advisers and managers, insurance consultants, stock brokers, appraisers, and other Persons deemed by the Trustee to be qualified to assist the Trustee on the matters submitted to them.

7.6 Limitation upon Liability of Trustee.

(a) Not Acting in Individual Capacity. In accepting the Trust Property in trust hereunder, the Trustee acts solely as trustee hereunder and not in its individual capacity, and all persons having any claim against the Trustee by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall look only to the Trust Property for payment or satisfaction thereof.

(b) Exculpatory Provisions. The Trustee shall be not liable to the Trust, Midwestern, EPTP, any other Primary Beneficiary, or any holder of any claim except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Trustee shall not be liable for any act or omission of any agent, advisor, consultant, or employee of the Trust, unless the Trustee acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct in the selection or retention of such agent, advisor, consultant, or employee. No provision of this Agreement shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its rights or powers hereunder, if the Trustee shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured or provided to it. The Trustee shall not be responsible for or in respect of the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement or for the due execution hereof by the Company

(c) Protection on Distributions. The Trustee shall be protected in continuing to make distributions hereunder until the Trustee shall have actual knowledge of the happening of an event or any other occurrence that would cause such distributions to be unlawful.

7.7 Indemnification of Protected Parties.

(a) The Trustee shall indemnify out of the assets of the Trust any Protected Party against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement or otherwise actually or reasonably incurred by such Protected Party in connection with any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action or suit by or in the right of the Company or the Trust) if such Protected Party acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company or the Trust and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that a Protected Party did not act in good faith and in a manner that such Protected Party reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company or the Trust, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

(b) The Trustee shall indemnify out of the assets of the Trust any Protected Party against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such Protected Party in connection with the defense or settlement of any action or suit by or in the right of the Company or the Trust to procure a judgment in its favor if such Protected Party acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company or the Trust, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such Protected Party shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the Company or the Trust unless and only to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction (including the court in which such action or suit was brought) shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such Protected Party is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses that such court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a Protected Party has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b), or in the defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, such Protected Party shall be indemnified by the Trustee out of the assets of the Trust against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

(d) Unless ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, any indemnification under subparagraphs (a) and (b) shall be made by the Trustee only upon a determination that the indemnification of the Protected Party in question is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standards of conduct set forth in subparagraphs (a) and (b). Such determination shall be made by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

(e) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by a Protected Party in defending a civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, or proceeding may be paid by the Trustee out of the assets of the Trust in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Protected Party in question to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is entitled to be indemnified by the Trust as authorized by this Section.

(f) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any Protected Party may otherwise be entitled, and shall continue as to a Person who has ceased to be a Protected Party and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, and successors of such Protected Party.

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any claim for indemnification or the advancement of expenses by a current or former director or officer of the Company pursuant to the terms of the Company's certificate of incorporation, the Company's bylaws, any agreement between such director or officer and the Company, or Section 145 of the DGCL, which claim arises by reason of any transaction, event, occurrence, action, inaction, or decision occurring on or before the Effective Date or by reason of any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative arising by reason of such transaction, event, occurrence, action, inaction, or decision, shall be treated as a Contingent or Conditional Contract Claim under the Plan and shall be governed by the Company's certificate of incorporation, the Company's bylaws, the agreement between such officer or director and the Company, and/or Section 145 of the DGCL, as the case may be.

(h) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the provisions herein regarding indemnification shall not supplant, alter, amend or modify any other indemnification, defense or hold harmless agreement or obligation expressed or implied by law or contract including without limitation any and all such obligations expressed or implied in insurance policies issued to or covering the Company, any insured under such policies (including "named insureds" and "additional insureds"), and any beneficiary of the Trust. Any such defense or indemnification shall take precedence over any indemnity expressed herein and any payment pursuant to this provision shall be treated as an advance pending receipt of insurance proceeds in the event that the Company, the Trust or any beneficiary asserts that any policy of insurance available to the Company, the Trust or any beneficiary of the Trust is responsive in lieu of or in conjunction with any indemnity expressed herein.

7.8 Trustee's Lien. The Trustee and any other Protected Party shall have a prior lien upon the assets of the Trust to secure payment of any amounts payable to the Trustee pursuant to Section 7.7.

7.9 Other Activities. Nothing in this Trust Agreement shall preclude the Trustee from engaging in any other activities, business or otherwise.

ARTICLE VIII

LIQUIDATING DISTRIBUTIONS, FINAL LIQUIDATING DISTRIBUTION, AND TERMINATION

8.1 The Trustee may (i) conduct a review of all payments made to and from the Company or the Trust on and subsequent to the Effective Date and of all anticipated and pending claims against and obligations of the Company or the Trust, including Plan Claims; (ii) consider the extent to which the value of the assets held by the Trust exceeds the amount of anticipated payments to be made out of the assets of the Trust in connection with Plan Obligations; and (iii) consider any other information the Trustee deems relevant; and, based on such considerations, the Trustee may, in the Trustee's sole discretion, distribute, on one or more occasions and prior to the time a Final Liquidating Distribution is made pursuant to Section 8.2 hereof, such amount from the assets of the Trust as the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, deems reasonable and appropriate, ratably to the Primary Beneficiary (an "Interim Liquidating Distribution"); provided that the Trustee must be reasonably satisfied that the value of the assets remaining in the Trust following each such distribution will be reasonably likely to be sufficient to satisfy all remaining Plan Obligations that are known to the Trustee or that may arise in connection with Plan Claims that are likely to arise or become known to the Trustee prior to the expiration of the Claims Assertion Date.

8.2 As soon as practicable after all Plan Obligations have been paid and the Claims Assertion Date has passed, the Trustee shall distribute all assets remaining in the Trust, if any, ratably (except as set forth in Section 8.4 hereof) to the Primary Beneficiary (the "Final Liquidating Distribution").

8.3 The Trust shall automatically terminate on the Termination Date. Prior to the Termination Date, the dissolution, termination, insolvency, or bankruptcy of any beneficiary (including any Primary Beneficiary) or any Trustee shall not result in the termination or dissolution of the Trust.

8.4 All amounts required to be withheld pursuant to the Code or any provision of any state, local, or foreign tax law with respect to the Interim Liquidating Distributions, if any, and the Final Liquidating Distribution, if any, shall be treated as amounts paid or distributed, as the case may be, to the Primary Beneficiary with respect to which such amounts were withheld pursuant to this Section 8.4 for all purposes of the Plan and this Trust Agreement. The Company or the Trustee, as the case may be, shall be authorized to withhold from any such distributions or payments, as the case may be, and to pay over to any federal, state, and local government or any foreign government, any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state, local, or foreign law and shall reduce by the amount thereof the otherwise pro rata distribution to the Primary Beneficiary with respect to which such amount was withheld.

ARTICLE IX

CONCERNING THE TRUSTOR AND THE PRIMARY BENEFICIARY

9.1 General Intentions. The Trustor and the Primary Beneficiary affirm their intentions that the Trust qualify as a liquidating trust under the Code, and, because the Trust is not to engage in any business activities whatsoever, the Trustor and the Primary Beneficiary do not believe that their consents to activities of the Trust should ever be necessary. In the event any action shall require consent of the Trustor and/or any beneficiary (including the Primary Beneficiary), and except to the extent expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement, consent of the Trustor and/or such beneficiaries shall be deemed given only to the extent that all of the beneficiaries and/or the Trustor, as the case may be, shall be required.

9.2 Limitation on Liability. To the extent permitted by law, the beneficiaries (including the Primary Beneficiary) shall be entitled to the same limitation of per-liability extended to stockholders of private corporations for profit organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

ARTICLE X

GENERAL PROVISIONS

10.1 Incorporation of Plan. The Plan shall be deemed to be incorporated herein by reference as if the terms of the Plan were fully set forth herein. 10.3 Jurisdiction. The courts of the State of Delaware (including, without limitation, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware) shall have jurisdiction to hear and decide any claim or action against the Trustee or the Trust based on the administration or construction of the Trust or the Plan, or the performance of the Trustee's rights, duties, or obligations under this Trust Agreement or the Plan. The Trustee (and each successor Trustee by acceptance of its appointment as such) irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware in any and all actions against the Trust or the Trustee based

10.4 Severability. Any provision of this Trust Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provisions in any other jurisdiction.
